

Advanced Training Program for Teachers of the Japanese-Language Application Instructions

For FY 2016

1. Objectives

The Advanced Training Program at the Japan Foundation Japanese-Language Institute, Urawa (JFJLI, Urawa) provides teachers of the Japanese language who have specific challenges they wish to address or have issues they want to resolve in the teaching of the Japanese language (e.g., the development of teaching materials, teaching methods, or curriculums, etc.) with an opportunity to acquire advanced expertise and skills concerning the issues, and develop their problem-solving ability.

2. Program Outline

(1) Duration

October 18, 2016 – December 15, 2016 (tentative)

(2) Course Venue

The Japan Foundation Japanese-Language Institute, Urawa (JFJLI, Urawa) (Saitama City, Saitama Prefecture)

(3) Description of the Program

Research activities will consist of lectures, one-on-one (or team) guidance and discussion among participants. Program structure will depend on challenges and issues submitted at the time of application. Challenges and issues can relate to a variety of themes; including pedagogic method research, syllabus development and textbook compilation planning. Participants are requested to submit reports on the results of the training within three months after the training is completed. It is expected that the results are ultimately made public and published, in the form of an academic paper, syllabus, or textbook.

(4) Number of Participants for FY 2016

Approximately 10 teachers or teams (9 out of 18 applications (7 out of 14 teams) for FY 2015)

Examples of Accepted Projects: see the Japanese version of the Application Instruction

3. Eligibility

Overseas educational organizations that offer Japanese language education. Applications from individuals will not be accepted. Team applications should be submitted by the team leader's affiliated institution.

Application as a team is accepted to accomplish certain projects. However, only three persons from each team can participate in the program. Both native and non-native speakers of Japanese may apply to this program.

The following individuals are eligible to participate in the program:

- (1) Individuals who have an employment relationship with the applying organization where it is agreed they will continue working in the aforementioned organization after completing this program. In case of a team application, it is not necessary for the members to belong to the same institution of the same country;
- (2) Individuals who have a proficiency in Japanese of Level N1 Japanese-Language Proficiency Test, Level 1 of the old JLPT, or their equivalent (please view the official website of JLPT <http://www.jlpt.jp/e/about/levelsummary.html> to find the summary of the linguistic competence required for each level);
- (3) Individuals with at least five years of experience in teaching the Japanese language as of December 1, 2015 (private lessons not included);
- (4) Individuals who have not participated in a Japanese language teacher training program conducted by the Japan Foundation (including the "Short-Term Training for Foreign Teachers of the Japanese-Language") or any other academic institution in Japan for more than two months during the period from October, 2014 to December 1, 2015;
- (5) Individuals between the ages of 30 and 55 as of December 1, 2015;
- (6) Individuals who are Japanese nationals or nationals of a country that has diplomatic relations with Japan (※Taiwanese are eligible to apply for this program.); and

(7) Individuals in good physical and mental health.

4. Expense Coverage

- (1) Accommodations (a single room for each participant) within JFJLI, Urawa.
- (2) Meals during the program, partly in the form of cash allowances.
- (3) Expenses necessary for participation in official curriculum, such as teaching materials (in kind).
- (4) Overseas travel insurance with an upper limit on coverage (the insurance will cover the necessary expenses for sickness and in jury up to a limit on the policy. The insurance will not cover the expenses for a chronic or preexisting disease or injury contracted before arrival to Japan or dental care.).
- (5) Round-trip air tickets (discount economy class) to and from the nearest international airport from home residence, airport tax, foreign travel tax and set amount of in-kind allowances (prepaid multi-purpose card to cover expenses necessary for the participation in the program such as public transportation fee, etc.) are provided to participants who are nationals of the countries of the following regions:

Asia Pacific (excluding Korea, Taiwan, Singapore, Brunei, Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong residents in China who hold a BNO or Hong Kong SAR passport, and Macau residents in China who hold Macau SAR passport), Central and South America (excluding Barbados, the Bahamas, Saint Christopher and Nevis, and Trinidad and Tobago), Eastern Europe, Middle East and North Africa (excluding U.A.E., Israel, Qatar, Kuwait, Oman, Saudi Arabia and Bahrain), Africa.

*These expenses are provided to participants who are Japanese nationals and living in the regions above.

*Participants who are nationals of countries other than the regions above, have to bear these expenses.

5. Selection Policy

- (1) Screening will be made in line with the following criteria:
 - a. Need for Japanese language teaching programs in applicant's country/region.
 - b. Applicant's teaching position and influence on the academic world of Japanese language education in applicant's country/region.
 - c. Applicant's Japanese-language proficiency, sufficient academic ability, etc.
- (2) Preference will be given to projects in which the feasibility of the project written in the plan is high. (e.g. Projects already underway related to developing teaching materials and syllabuses.)
- (3) Preference will be given to full-time teachers.

6. Application Procedures

- (1) The application form consists of 9 pages. When applying, please submit this application form together with one copy collated and stapled, respectively.
- (2) Applicants and supporting documents must be submitted to the nearest Japan Foundation office or Japanese diplomatic mission no later than December 1, 2015. In Taiwan, applications must be submitted to the Interchange Association, Japan, Taipei office. Application materials submitted by e-mail or by FAX will not be accepted.
- (3) The application form and the other related documents cannot be returned to the candidate under any circumstances. The applicant must be sure to keep one copy of the application for him/herself.
- (4) If an acknowledgement of receipt of the application is required, applicants should enclose a stamped, self-addressed postcard with the application, on which applicants should write as follows:
 "Name of the program: Advanced Training Program for Teachers of the Japanese-Language
 Please send acknowledgement of receipt of the application."
 The postcard will be returned with the signature of the officer-in-charge at the Japan Foundation overseas office or Japanese diplomatic mission to acknowledge receipt of the application. However, please note that a postcard that lacks the applicant's name, address, the name of the program, or the necessary postage stamp will not be returned.
- (5) In case of any changes to the information provided in the application materials after the submission, please submit the notification as soon as possible.
- (6) The entire application form, especially the Study Plan part, should be filled out in Japanese if there are no specific directions, such as "in English" or "in Native Language". Applicants are strictly requested to fill out the application form alone without assistance from others.
- (7) For team applications, the team leader's institution should submit the application. (Submit one copy of the Study Plan part [pages 4-7] as well as data on each member of the team [pages 1-3 and 8-9])
- (8) For pages 4-7, please choose either 4 or 5-7, depending on whether the project is Research Paper Writing (page 4)

or Syllabus & curriculum Development (page 5-7).

7. Notification of Results

- (1) Applications will be screened by JFJLI, Urawa, and decisions will be announced in April 2016.
- (2) Please understand that we cannot answer enquiries in regard to the reasons for our decisions.
- (3) Candidates for this program may also simultaneously apply to “Graduate Program in Japanese-Language and Culture (Master’s Program)” or other “Training Programs for Teachers of the Japanese-Language (Long-Term / Short-Term / for Japanese descendants)”. However, candidates will only be allowed to participate in one program even if they are successfully accepted to several programs.

8. Obligations

The participants are required to adhere to the following:

- (1) To observe the laws of Japan during their stay in Japan;
- (2) To devote themselves to the program and not to make use of their stay in Japan for any other purposes, such as religious or political purposes;
- (3) To understand that they are invited as members of a group, and to attend every activity of the program, under the direction of JFJLI, Urawa;
- (4) Not to arrive in Japan before the beginning date of the training program;
- (5) Not to go abroad or return to their home country for the duration of the program;
- (6) To return to their home country as soon as the official period of the program expires, unless JFJLI, Urawa permits an extension of stay in Japan beyond the program; and
- (7) Not to be accompanied by their family members.

9. Disclosure of Information

- (1) Details of projects supported by the Japan Foundation (e.g., the name of the applicant, project descriptions) will be made public in the Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyo Jisseki (Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation), on the Japan Foundation's website, and in other public-relations materials.
- (2) When a request for information based on the "Law Concerning the Disclosure of Information Held by Independent Administrative Institution, etc." (Law No. 140 of 2001), is received, materials such as submitted application forms will be disclosed (unless stipulated by laws as not to be disclosed).

10. Handling of Personal Information

The applying institution shall inform candidates of the following:

- (1) The Japan Foundation handles personal information appropriately and in accordance with the "Law Concerning Access to Personal Information Held by Independent Administrative Institutions" (Law No. 59 of 2003). Details of the Japan Foundation's personal information protection policy can be reviewed at the following website: <http://www.jpjf.go.jp/e/privacy>
- (2) The Japan Foundation uses personal information on the application materials for screening, implementation, and evaluation procedures of the project. They may also be used for the following purpose:
 - a. Details of participant’s information, such as name, gender, job and position, affiliation, project duration, and project description, etc. are published in the Program Guide, the Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyo Jisseki(Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation), the Annual Report, on the Japan Foundation's website, in other public-relations materials. They are also used in compiling statistics and released to the press for publicity purposes.
 - b. There may be cases in which these information are released to Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, Embassies or Consulates-General of Japan, etc. at the place where participant lives in order to apply for a visa.
 - c. There may also be cases in which copies of applications, including documents containing some personal information, are provided to outside consultants in order to facilitate the screening process and the evaluation of the results of projects. The Japan Foundation requests the consultants to take measures to ensure safety of the provided personal information.
 - d. There may also be cases in which the Japan Foundation sends questionnaires to the addresses written on this form after the project has ended.
 - e. There may also be cases in which the Japan Foundation uses the information written on the application form to contact the applicants to inform them of other Japan Foundation activities.
- (3) There may be cases in which the project reports and other related publication are released to the public.

- (4) Information is offered only to the extent necessary for the persons concerned who get cooperation to voyage arrangements or training programs (The insurance company and its agencies, airline companies, local governments, etc.)
- (5) It is considered that by applying to this program, participants agree to the use of personal information for the above-mentioned policy.
