Instructions

- In this exercise, you always talk from the point of view of where you are now. Check that the students know which place they are in. (E.g. We are now in the classroom/ at school/ in our country.)
- The teacher says each sentence as in the Model Text as far as 「～は～へ」.
- The students say the verb that correctly finishes each statement.
- Practise changing the words in Model Text 1-4 to these below:
 - がっこう 学校、ここ
 - name of your country
 - しょくどう 食堂、プール、あそこ
 - name of your school

Model Text

- 1 わたしは きょうしつへ 来^きます。
- 2 わたしは うちへ かえります。
- 3 わたしは と書^{しょ}かんへ 行きます。
- 4 田中^{たなか}さんは (name of the students' country) へ 来^きます。
- 5 田中^{たなか}さんは 日本^{にほん}へ かえります。

Variation

You can prepare a worksheet with partial sentences containing 「～は～へ」 written on it and the students can practise choosing the missing verb by themselves and writing it onto a worksheet.

To the Teacher

- It is easier to explain where you are if you use pictures or photographs of a school, home, the library, your own country, Japan, etc.
