1	from 8 March to 10 March	2019/03/08	2019/03/10	Honolulu Festival	Honolulu Festival Foundation	Exhibition, Performance / concert, Film / Video screening, Seminar / workshop, Lecture	Hawaii Convention Center	1801 Kalakaua Ave, Honolulu, HI 96815	The Honolulu Festival is Hawaii's premier cultural event, promoting mutual understanding, economic cooperation and ethnic harmony between the people of Hawaii and the Pacific Rim region. Each year, the Festival attracts thousands of new and returning spectators who are looking for an experience unique to Hawaii. Through educational programs and activities sponsored by the Honolulu Festival Foundation, the Festival has been successful in showcasing the rich and vibrant blend of Asia, Pacific and Hawaiian cultures to the rest of the world. The three day extravaganza takes place every year in March from Friday through Sunday. Performers from various countries and regions such as Japan, Australia, Tahiti, the Philippines, Taiwan, South Korea, Hawaii and the mainland United States get together and give dance performances and traditional art demonstrations. The Festival culminates with a spectacular parade down Kalakaua Avenue, the main street in Waikiki. Events and activities of the Honolulu Festival take place close to the city center, making them great outings for locals and tourists alike. Admission to all the events is free, ensuring that everyone can take part in the Festival. Honolulu Festival's main theme, "Pacific Harmony," reflects our vision to introduce the diverse culture of the Pacific region to the people of Hawaii and visitors from all over the world. It is our hope to cultivate the friendship among people of the Pacific, and play a role in contributing to the world peace.
2	from 2 March to 8 March	2019/03/02	2019/03/08	KABUKI IN HAWAII 2019	KABUKI IN HAWAII Executive committee	Performance / concert	Kennedy Theater, University of Hawaii / Hawaii Convention Center	1770 East-West Rd, Honolulu, HI 96822 1801 Kalakaua Ave, Honolulu, HI 96815	As a celebration of the 150th anniversary of Japanese immigrants to Hawaii, we will perform Kabuki performances, traditional Japanese performing arts performances in Honolulu, Hawaii. Kabuki performance in Hawaii has been held in 1964 and 1967 in the past, the first time in 52 years. In addition to seeing it by many Japanese immigrants, it is an opportunity to contact Japanese culture directly through preparation, management and management of the performances. We are also considering inviting elementary school students to the performances and it is expected that a wide audience will visit the general public of Hawaii for theaters, understanding and interest in Japanese traditional culture and art at a wide range of fields and levels It is expected to be able to spread.
