

NO	from	to	Name of Project	Organizer	Type of Event	Venue	Description of Project
1	2019/03/08	2019/03/10	Honolulu Festival	Honolulu Festival Foundation	Exhibition, Performance / concert, Film / Video screening, Seminar / workshop, Lecture	Hawaii Convention Center	The Honolulu Festival is Hawaii's premier cultural event, promoting mutual understanding, economic cooperation and ethnic harmony between the people of Hawaii and the Pacific Rim region. Each year, the Festival attracts thousands of new and returning spectators who are looking for an experience unique to Hawaii. Through educational programs and activities sponsored by the Honolulu Festival Foundation, the Festival has been successful in showcasing the rich and vibrant blend of Asia, Pacific and Hawaiian cultures to the rest of the world. The three day extravaganza takes place every year in March from Friday through Sunday. Performers from various countries and regions such as Japan, Australia, Tahiti, the Philippines, Taiwan, South Korea, Hawaii and the mainland United States get together and give dance performances and traditional art demonstrations. The Festival culminates with a spectacular parade down Kalakaua Avenue, the main street in Waikiki. Events and activities of the Honolulu Festival take place close to the city center, making them great outings for locals and tourists alike. Admission to all the events is free, ensuring that everyone can take part in the Festival. Honolulu Festival's main theme, "Pacific Harmony," reflects our vision to introduce the diverse culture of the Pacific region to the people of Hawaii and visitors from all over the world. It is our hope to cultivate the friendship among people of the Pacific, and play a role in contributing to the world peace.
2	2019/03/02	2019/03/08	KABUKI IN HAWAII 2019	KABUKI IN HAWAII Executive committee	Performance / concert	Kennedy Theater, University of Hawaii/Hawaii Convention Center	As a celebration of the 150th anniversary of Japanese immigrants to Hawaii, we will perform Kabuki performances, traditional Japanese performing arts performances in Honolulu, Hawaii. Kabuki performance in Hawaii has been held in 1964 and 1967 in the past, the first time in 52 years. In addition to seeing it by many Japanese immigrants, it is an opportunity to contact Japanese culture directly through preparation, management and management of the performances. We are also considering inviting elementary school students to the performances and it is expected that a wide audience will visit the general public of Hawaii for theaters, understanding and interest in Japanese traditional culture and art at a wide range of fields and levels It is expected to be able to spread.
3	2019/04/28	2019/04/28	White Plains Cherry Blossom Festival	Niji no Kai	Others	Turnure Park	The White Plains Cherry Blossom Festival, partnering with the City of White Plains, is a Japanese cultural arts festival that is free and open to the general public. The festival runs approximately 6 hours and provides attendees with non-stop entertainment, food, and activities. People love to come to our festival every year. They enjoy welcoming Spring with the 100 Cherry Blossoms trees in the park, which were all donated to the city by Niji no Kai. Last year, more than 7000 people have enjoyed the event. All proceeds of the event will be donated to Higashi Matsushima City (Miyagi Prefecture), and Kumamoto City for earthquake relief.
4	2019/03/30	2019/03/30	Lecture on Commodore Perry's report	Japan Society of Fairfield County, Inc.	Lecture	Cos Cob Library	Lecture about Commodore Matthew Perry's report of his 1850 Expedition to Japan, with emphasis on the artwork in the report. Lecture will be held on March 30, 2019.
5	2019/04/28	2019/04/28	Tate Hatoryu NY	Kasumi, Kyo	Performance / concert	Japan Society	We hope the people in NY from various races, countries and cultures will enjoy the culture, history and the depth of the enjoyment of TATE, our Japanese traditional performing arts by watching the showcase by our Dojo students. Also we will be offering a variety of taste from the Japanese traditional cultures with foods and craft workshops at our reception party. The theme of this year is "Co-Life", thus we will send the message through our event that people from different backgrounds can share the same values while understanding the differences, and the importance of Co-Life here in NY through TATE.
6	2019/04/01	2019/04/17	Tamagawa University Dance and Taiko Group US Tour 2019	Tamagawa University	Performance / concert	Stony Brook University, West Chester University, Ursinus College, Franklin & Marshall College, The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, National Cherry Blossom Festival, Cherry Blossom Festival of Greater Philadelphia, Swarthmore College	We have been touring with Taiko drumming and Japanese folkloric dance in the US since 2003. It will be our 16th year. Our company consists of selected juniors and seniors of our college, and tours extensively in cities in East Coast for three weeks in April every year. We will perform at prestigious festivals and venues such as National Cherry Blossom Festival Parade and Kennedy Center in DC, and Philadelphia Cherry Blossom Festival. This year's tour includes above mentioned venues as well as Boston and New York, total of 13 performances.
7	2019/04/30	2019/05/06	Mono no aware(the sadness or pathos of things by Hiroko Watanabe)	Tenri Cultural Institute of New York	Exhibition, Performance / concert	Tenri Cultural Institute of New York	All of Watanabe's works are one letter of Kanji character. Some of them are written on a surface of cubes. She piles a few of these cubes high and make 3D installation of calligraphy. After mastering the traditional calligraphy, Watanabe creates kanji letters with improvisation, which is a reminder of the origin of kanji. Opening reception on Thurs. May 2nd includes live performance by Watanabe and Japanese Drums.

8	2019/03/31	2019/03/31	Glories of the Japanese Music Heritage XIV	IMJS:Japanese Cultural Heritage Initiatives, Columbia University	Performance / concert	Miller Theatre, Columbia University	Lady Murasaki's 11th-century masterpiece of fiction The Tale of Genji, believed to be the world's first novel, is filled with her detailed descriptions of music festivals, court music ceremonials, concert rehearsals, and private instrumental ruminations by solitary players. Come hear this music brought to life again by eminent musicians from Japan and elsewhere, together with the Columbia University Gagaku and Hogaku Ensembles of New York, presented by the IMJS:Japanese Cultural Heritage Initiatives at Columbia. This Concert also includes the last official poetry made public in January 2019 of the present retiring Emperor and Empress of Japan sung for the first time outside the imperial palace.
9	2019/05/05	2019/05/05	Sixth Annual Japan Cultural Festival THE MATSURI	THE MATSURI NEW YORK INC.	Others	Ma Riis Park/Harrison Public Library	Early spring is "hanami"(viewing of the blossoms) in Japan, during which time most people will visit parks to gather with friends, for entertainment, and for a chance to unwind by surrounding oneself with nature, and good foods and drinks. With support from the Village of Harrison, we would like to recreate this seasonal event for the community, and provide its residents a chance to experience authentic Japanese foods and performances. Objective : To show appreciation to the Village of Harrison, which has continuously welcomed and supported the Japanese community within their own, and to deepen the relationship and understanding of the residents and their cultures. Proposal : For Japanese people, especially for whom English is not their native language, and who generally tend not to be as active within the community, this is a great opportunity to become more involved by introducing Japanese foods and culture to the residents of Westchester. Event Details : • On-stage performances of traditional and modern Japanese dances, music and etc... • Food vendors will be preparing and selling authentic Japanese food. Vendors will include local shops and restaurants, as well as those from NYC. Menu items will be mostly snack-sized portions, which can easily be enjoyed, at reasonable price. • Game booths will be set up to introduce traditional Japanese games that children play at festivals.
10	2019/03/30	2019/03/30	National Cherry Blossom Festival Cherry Blast	MGM Resorts International	Exhibition, Performance / concert, Others	MGM National Harbor	Cherry Blast is an official premier event of the National Cherry Blossom Festival which is focused on Japanese culture, art and food & beverage themes. This year, as a host of the venue, MGM is collaborating with Japan's MAFF and MAFF has been providing advice on the food/drink menu and effective ways to promote Japanese food culture. Japanese cultural/art live performances including taiko drum performances will be offered, along with a variety of Japanese cuisine and beverage. The event is open to public with admission fee.
11	2019/04/11	2019/06/29	Bold Lines and Delicate Figures	Sato Sakura Gallery New York	Exhibition	Sato Sakura Gallery New York	Sato Sakura Gallery New York organize an exhibition of paintings with cherry blossoms and portraits, also il promote contemporary Nihonga Japanese paintings to the people of the world.
12	2019/03/21	2019/03/24	Sadao Watanabe Quartet	Blue Note Entertainment Group	Performance/Concert	Blue Note Jazz Club New York	A quartet concert by Sadao Watanabe who is an alto saxophone player, representing as a top Japanese musician. Members are Sadao Watanabe (as) ,Russell Ferrante (p) ,Ben Williams (b) and Ittetsu Takemura (ds) . The performance will be held to March 21, March 23, and March 24.