

Local Exchange Programs

In order to contribute and cooperate with the local community, the Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai, conducts joint Japanese programs with municipal governments.

2019 Academic Year: Local Exchange Programs*example

◆ Basic Japanese-Language Program for JET participants in Osaka

Program Period	1 day (August)
Eligible Participants	New JET participants in Osaka Prefecture
Program Content	Participants practice Japanese conversation required for daily life at their assigned post, including spoken language and regional dialects.

◆ Intensive Japanese-Language Training Program for Australian Teachers invited by Osaka Prefectural Government

Program Period	17 days (January)
Eligible Participants	Japanese-language teachers from Queensland (Australia), a sister-city of Osaka Prefecture
Program Content	Practice using previously-acquired Japanese skills, gathering of materials useful for instructing Japanese-language classes, cultural experiences, etc.

2021 Academic Year: Local Exchange Programs*example

◆ Basic Japanese-Language Program for JET participants in Osaka

Program Period	1 day (November), Online 1 day (January), 1 day (March)
Eligible Participants	New JET participants in Osaka Prefecture
Program Content	Participants practice Japanese conversation required for daily life at their assigned post, including spoken language and regional dialects.

◆ Intensive Japanese-Language Training Program for Australian Teachers invited by Osaka Prefectural Government

Program Period	Online 5 days (December)
Eligible	Japanese-language teachers from Queensland (Australia), a sister-city of

Participants	Osaka Prefecture
Program Content	Practice using previously-acquired Japanese skills, gathering of materials useful for instructing Japanese-language classes, etc.