

Support Program for Organizations Providing Japanese-Language Education for Living and Working (Grants) APPLICATION GUIDELINES

1 Purpose

This program is a grant program to partially support the costs for printing and bookbinding of IRODORI Japanese for Life in Japan that can be used in Japanese-language education implemented by organizations and groups that provide Japanese-language education to persons, including those who plan to come to Japan under the “Specified Skills” residence status system, with the objective of supporting Japanese-language education necessary for living and working in Japan. Programs that are planned to be implemented by the end of March 2024 will be eligible.

About “IRODORI Japanese for Life in Japan”:

The Japanese-language coursebook “Irodori: Japanese for Life in Japan” is a textbook for foreign people to learn basic Japanese communication skills that are needed for daily life and working in Japan. Irodori is made up of three parts: Starter (A1), Elementary 1 (A2), and Elementary 2 (A2). You can download it from the following websites for free.

English : <https://www.irodori.jp/en/index.html>

Mongolian : <https://japan-center.edu.mn/a/23198>

2. Eligible Areas

Mongolia

3. Eligible Projects

- (1) Projects that are planned to be implemented from September 2023 and completed by the end of March 2024, with the objective of enhancing the Japanese-language education base for persons seeking to work in Japan. (Period of grant eligibility: Between the date of grant approval and March 31, 2024)
- (2) Projects must fulfil all of the following requirements.
 - a. The project’s objectives would be impossible or difficult to achieve without the provision of a grant.
 - b. The plan and method of implementing the project are appropriate for achieving the project’s objectives and can be expected to yield good results.
 - c. The project will not be used for religious or political purposes.

4. Eligible Applicants

- (1) Organizations or groups that are located in the area identified in Section 2 above and are providing Japanese-language education to persons, including those who plan to come to Japan under the “Specified Skills” residence status system. Applications from individuals will not be accepted.
- (2) Applicants that are not one of the following:
 - a. The Japanese government (including national institutions), Japanese local municipalities, Japanese independent administrative institutions, and Japanese local independent administrative institutions (hereinafter referred to as “Government Institutions”).
 - b. Educational institutions and research institutions established by Government Institutions or other organizations, groups or facilities affiliated to the Japanese government (excluding groups that have a fixed legal status such as a corporate juridical person or foundation, even if a Government Institution was involved in its establishment).
 - c. Governments outside of Japan (including their administrative organs such as ministries and agencies) and the overseas diplomatic missions of foreign governments.
 - d. International organizations to which the Japanese government makes a financial contribution.
- (3) Applicants that fulfill all of the following requirements.
 - a. Applicants that have the capacity to implement the planned project.
 - b. The receipt of grants or support from the Japan Foundation does not violate any local laws, regulations or ordinances (this must be confirmed prior to submitting an application).
 - c. In principle, organizations or groups that apply should possess a bank account capable of receiving the remittance of grant funds from the Japan Foundation, or be able to establish such an account prior to the disbursement of funds.

5. Program Explanation

(1) Overview

Item	Details
Publication Grant (Grant for Printing and Bookbinding of IRODORI Japanese for Life in Japan)	Grant to support the costs for printing and bookbinding of IRODORI Japanese for Life in Japan that can be used in Japanese-language education for the purpose of living and working in Japan.  - (l) Expenses for purchasing teaching materials

(3) Points to be noted

- a. This grant program is for projects that are planned to be implemented by the end of March, 2024.
- b. Grant funds must be expended within the grant period. Expenses incurred outside the grant period (before the start of the grant period or after the end of the grant period) are not eligible for the grant funding.
- c. In principle, grants will not be provided to organizations that have received support as part of the same program for three consecutive fiscal years for a fourth consecutive fiscal year, unless the Japan Foundation assesses that there is strong justification for the continuation of the program.
- d. Projects that are already being supported by a grant program operated by the Japan Foundation will not be approved for duplicate funding.
- e. Grant funds cannot be expended or diverted for items other than those approved by the Japan Foundation. The maximum amount of grant funding shall, in principle, be set at 1 million yen. The maximum amount of grant funding shall be determined for each application after screening and consideration of the content and necessity of the individual project.
- f. Projects will not be fully funded by a grant. Self-financing or another funding source being available is a condition of applying.
- g. If unused funds remain after the completion of the grant project, the remaining funds shall be returned by a deadline to be set by the Japan Foundation. Any bank charges relating to the return of grant funds are to be borne by the applicant.

6. Selection Method

Screening and selection will be conducted from the following perspectives.

- (1) Position of the applicant organization in the country/region in question
- (2) Specific expected outcomes
- (3) Ripple effect in the country/region for disseminating Japanese-language skills for the purpose of living and working in Japan
- (4) Financing situation other than funds from the Japan Foundation, including self-financing, etc.
- (5) Feasibility of the plan (program to be implemented, framework, schedule, etc.)

(6) Safety conditions in the region where the project is to be implemented

(2) Applications for projects must be received no later than June 15, 2023.

Applications should be submitted to the Japanese diplomatic mission in the applicant’s country.
 Submission from Mongolia: To Embassy of Japan in Mongolia

Points to be noted:

- Applications will not be accepted via post or fax.
- Applicants must promptly notify the Japan Foundation if any of the information given on the application changes.
- Submitted application documents will not be returned. Please be sure to retain a copy for yourself.

8. Notification of Results

- (1) Each applicant organization or group will be notified of the results of screening and selection from September 2023.
- (2) If a project is accepted, the specific amount of grant funding will be calculated taking various factors into account, including the regulations of the Japan Foundation, price levels in the relevant country, and balancing with grants to other accepted projects. This calculation process may result in the final grant amount being significantly less than the amount applied for.

9. Obligations of the Grantee

- (1) Programs of the Japan Foundation are operated in accordance with the relevant Japanese laws and regulations of the Japan Foundation including the “Law for the Proper Execution of a Budget Relating to Subsidies” (Law No. 179 of 1955).
 Projects should be implemented in accordance with how they are described in the application form. In the event that any changes (with the exception of minor changes) to the basic information relating to the applicant or to the content of the project are made after application, these should be notified to and approved by the Japan Foundation.
- (2) The grantee shall acknowledge the Japan Foundation’s financial support when the Grantee publicizes the project.
- (3) Teaching materials, and other items acquired through the grant must be appropriately managed and used in line with the project purposes, and be utilized efficiently according to the purpose of the grant even

- after the grant program ends.
- (4) During the implementation of the grant project if the Japan Foundation considers it to be necessary it may request the submission of a report from the grantee concerning the status of implementation of the grant project and the use and management of equipment and teaching materials purchased with the grant. If it is recognized that the grantee is not implementing the project in accordance with the details that were the basis for deciding to provide funding, or other attached conditions, the provision of the grant may be halted.
 - (5) The Grantee must submit a report upon completion of the project, detailing an overview of the project, its outcomes and matters pertaining to income and expenditure.
 - (6) The Grantee shall prepare account books and documented evidences pertaining to all revenues and expenditures relating to the Grant Project and preserve them for five years from the next year of the year the Grant Project has been carried out.
 - (7) The Japan Foundation does not tolerate any fraudulent activity of applicants during the application process and throughout the grant period. Once a grant has been provided, committing any form of fraud with regard to the Japan Foundation grant funds could result in penalty measures, such as revocation of decision to provide a grant in whole or in part, required return of the rescinded portions of the grant including additional charges, late payment charges, suspension of the grant for a certain period of time, and/or other legal actions.
 - (8) Grantees should comply with any other conditions that were appended at the time of the decision to provide a grant.

10. Disclosure of Information

- (1) Details of projects supported by the Japan Foundation (e.g., the name of the applicant, project descriptions) will be made public in the Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyō Jisseki (Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation), the Annual Report, or on the Japan Foundation's website, or via other public-relations materials.
- (2) Upon receiving a request for information disclosure based on the "Law Concerning the Disclosure of Information Held by Independent Administrative Institutions, etc." (Law No. 140 of 2001), the Japan Foundation will disclose materials such as submitted application forms (unless stipulated by laws as not to be disclosed).

11. Handling of Personal Information

- (1) Compliance with applicable laws
 To the extent applicable, the Japan Foundation will comply with the "Act on the Protection of Personal Information" (Act No. 57 of 2003) (the "Act"), relevant cabinet and ministerial orders, various guidelines stipulated by the Personal Information Protection Commission or other organizations to which the Personal Information Protection Commission has delegated authority, the "EU General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR")," the Personal Information Protection Law of the People's Republic of China and related laws and regulations (the "Chinese Laws"), and other laws and regulations in relation to protection of personal information in relevant countries and regions, etc., and when handling any personal information, the Japan Foundation will properly collect, use and control the same. language proficiency, overseas residence history, overseas residence plan, contact information during the residence period, etc.

[Sensitive data on applicants]

Personal data such as bank account information

(3) Purposes of use and period of personal information

- a. Based on the consent of the applicant, the Japan Foundation will use the Personal Information acquired from the applicant for screening, notification of screening results, implementation of the project, post-evaluation, communication to successful applicants and for any and all other purposes for management of applicants and successful applicants (the “Purposes of Use”).
- b. For the proper and smooth operation of the Japan Foundation projects, any information such as the applicants’ names, genders, jobs, titles, affiliations, project periods, project content, etc. will be: posted on published materials, such as the Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation (Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyō Jisseki), the Annual Report and the Japan Foundation’s website; used for preparation of statistics materials; and used for formulation of future Japan Foundation projects.
- c. In addition to the information specified in b. above, the applicants’ contact information (i.e., address, e-mail address and phone number) will be used to: request the applicants to answer questionnaires as follow-up to the project after completion thereof; provide a notice regarding other Japan Foundation projects; request the applicants to provide information for formulation of future Japan Foundation projects, and so on.
- d. The Japan Foundation will handle the Personal Information of the applicants for the period necessary to achieve the Purposes of Use stated above.

(4) Provision of personal information

- a. The Japan Foundation may provide the Personal Information acquired from the applicants to the following organizations, to the minimum extent necessary. The Japan Foundation will make sure that the recipients take measures to ensure the security of the Personal Information.
 - (a) The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, Embassies or Consulates-General of Japan, etc. (for handling of security control, support for project implementation, etc.)
 - (b) Evaluators such as outside experts, etc. (for screening, post-evaluation, etc.)
 - (c) News media and other organizations (for public relations for the projects)
 - (d) Other organizations and individuals who receive the information as needed for the projects
- b. The Personal Information acquired from the applicants may be used or provided for purposes other than those specified in the Purposes of Use, in accordance with Article 69, Paragraph 2 of the Act, such as providing such Personal Information for administrative organs, other incorporated administrative agencies, local public entities or local incorporated administrative agencies (the “Administrative Organs”) as long as the Administrative Organs use the same within the scope necessary to conduct the affairs or services prescribed by applicable laws and regulations and where there is a reasonable ground for such use.

(5) Cross-border transfer of personal information

- a. The Japan Foundation may handle the Personal Information acquired from the applicants by transferring the same to the base located in Japan (including the Japan Foundation headquarters) or other countries or regions for the Purposes of Use specified above. The Japan Foundation shall appropriately control the Personal Information in such countries or regions.
- b. In addition to the case specified in the preceding paragraph, the Japan Foundation may provide the Personal Information acquired from the applicants to necessary organizations or individuals in Japan or other countries or regions for the Purposes of Use specified above as needed for the projects, only when the conditions stipulated in laws and regulations are satisfied.

(6) Security control of personal information

The Japan Foundation shall endeavor to prevent unauthorized access and leakage of the Personal Information of the applicants by way of taking appropriate security control measures and control means.

(7) Rights pertaining to personal information of applicant

The applicant has the right to access his/her Personal Information, correct inaccurate Personal Information, suspend the use of the Personal Information, etc., to the extent that the Act, the GDPR, the Chinese Laws and other laws pertaining to protection of the Personal Information in

- the relevant country or region apply.
- (8) Filing of objections against handling of personal information
In the case where the applicant is dissatisfied with the handling of the Personal Information in the Japan Foundation, such applicant may state his/her objections to the Japan Foundation to the extent permitted by the applicable laws and regulations. In accordance with the applicable laws and regulations, the applicant may also file objections to the authority that has jurisdiction over protection of the Personal Information in the country to which the applicant belongs.
- (9) Personal information of persons involved in the project
The Personal Information of persons involved in the project other than the applicant, which is submitted by the applicant to the Japan Foundation, shall also be handled in the same manner as stipulated in (1) to (8) above, and therefore, the applicants should provide explanations in advance to the persons involved in the project and obtain their consent.
- (10) Contact information
Please use the contact details specified in “14 Inquiries” for any opinions, questions, etc. regarding any matters specified in this “Handling of Personal Information” section.
- (11) Revocation of consent
The applicant has the right to revoke his/her consent to any matters specified in this “Handling of Personal Information” section at any time. The revocation of consent does not affect the legality of the handling of the Personal Information prior to the revocation. In addition, when the applicant does not provide his/her consent or revokes his/her consent, such applicant may not be able to receive necessary information and/or services from the Japan Foundation.

12. Response to the Spread of the COVID-19

Depending on the impacts of widespread novel coronavirus, appropriate measures may be required when implementing the project in accordance with the regulations and instructions of the relevant authorities. Please understand that the Japan Foundation may unavoidably revoke its grant decision, or change the substance of its grant or the conditions attached as a result of changes in circumstances that have occurred after the decision to provide the grant.

13. Ensuring the Safety and Security of Projects Overseas

- (1) When implementing projects overseas, security information regarding the project location should be obtained and confirmed from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs’ overseas safety website in order to ensure personnel can travel and stay in the location safely.
* Ministry of Foreign Affairs’ overseas safety website: <http://www.anzen.mofa.go.jp/index.html>
- (2) When traveling overseas, register with “Tabireg” and strive to ensure safety overseas.
