

Asia Center Fellowship Program Application Instructions

1. About the Program

This program is designed to encourage joint or cooperative projects that cross national cultural borders among individuals. Fellowships are offered to successful applicants who plan to pursue their research and activities outside their home country (or countries), and who seek to further develop their field(s) of expertise and form networks between individual and institutional counterparts in ASEAN and/or Japan in a wide range of fields.

2. The Japan Foundation Asia Center's Mission

The Japan Foundation Asia Center(hereinafter the Asia Center)expands networks—both individual and institutional—in Asia, explores new initiatives with the region, and nurtures the sense of coexistence and understanding as fellow neighbors in Asia.

The four pillars of our mission are:

- (1) To expand the bases of cultural exchange for the betterment of mutual understanding
The Asia Center supports and implements a variety of projects that encourage more opportunities for exchange and dialogue, and that promote further mutual respect and understanding of the diverse cultures in Asia.
- (2) To promote human resources and soft infrastructure development initiatives
The Asia Center embraces the nurturing of rising cultural persons and institutions, and also the improvement of soft infrastructure (maintenance, systematization, etc.) for the sustenance and development of culture. These will be pursued through collaborative exchange with the region.
- (3) To form new networks and enduring bedrock and platforms for cultural exchanges
The Asia Center promotes the development of networks that bring cultural persons together and the building of an enduring substructure on which dialogues and collaborations can be shared, built, and continued toward resolving common concerns and achieving common goals in Asia.
- (4) To generate new values and discussions toward the future from Asia to the World
The Asia Center encourages collaborations in Asia and the wide circulation of new values and discussions generated to further expand the sphere of cultural and artistic exchange.

The Asia Center Fellowship Program particularly supports projects that pursue initiatives outlined in 2 to 4 and that have clear project objectives and plans.

* Applicants will be notified of the result by a letter.

* All inquiries related to the screening and results are strictly prohibited.

7. Selection Policy

Applications will be screened according but not limited to the following.

(1) Applicant's Background

The applicant's background will be taken into careful consideration during screening.

Below are a few of the points which will be assessed.

- Academic degree(s) (MA and above or equivalent) or research experience in relevant field
- Publications
- Past activities and achievements

(2) Selection Criteria

- Accordance with the mission of the Asia Center.
- Clarity in objectives, plans, and goals of the project
- Concrete methods of collaboration that cross national boundaries
- Necessity of on-site implementation according to the objectives and project plan
- Reasonable choice of Host Institution(s)/Individual(s)
- Realistic and effective Fellowship Period, scheduling and goal(s)
- The proposed activity/project's relevancy to the applicant's previous achievements.
- Applicant's potential for future engagements, development etc.
- Achievement that extend beyond the applicant's and channel back into society at large
- Contribution to the building of the bedrock or development of the relevant field

(3) Acceptance of Host Institution(s)/Individual(s)

- To ensure the collaborative nature of the program, applicants are required to have (an) Acceptance Form(s) from the Host Institution/Individual.
- Should the applicant be negotiating with the Host Institution(s)/Individual(s) at the time of the application, submit document(s) indicating its status.
- Failure to submit such forms may lead to the application given lower priority.

(4) Previous Fellows

Previous recipients of fellowships from the Japan Foundation (e.g. the Japanese Studies Fellowship or Abe Fellowship) will be given lower priority.

(5) Inquiries from the Asia Center

The Asia Center may make inquiries or request telephone interviews if needed.

8. Fellow's Obligations

Fellows are responsible for the following:

Should there be any transgressions of the below and regulations of the Asia Center, the Fellowship will be revoked, stipends (including Airfare) will be terminated, and the Asia Center may ask for a refund of the entire sum and additional penalty charges (if any) from the Fellow.

- C. In principle, departure from the activity site or location is not allowed.

(2) Submission of Reports

Fellows must submit Periodic Reports throughout the duration of the fellowship, and the Final Report within two months of completing the Asia Center Fellowship.

* Points to be noted:

- Liability

Fellows are responsible for all causes and effects resulting from her/his activities/project during the fellowship. The Asia Center shall not be responsible or liable for any illnesses or accidents that occur during the Fellowship Period.

Considering the recent instability in global security, with the increase of terrorist attacks in particular, the Japan Foundation highly recommends that you take the necessary security measures to ensure safety when you conduct your projects, such as checking if there are any security alerts issued in the countries or cities where your project is taking place.

Depending on the security situation of the place of activity or location, the Japan Foundation may not allow Fellows traveling to the site or location.

- Applying for Visa(s)

Fellows are responsible to apply for the issuance of the visa(s) necessary for the travel.

Applications and issuances of visa(s) can take up to months depending on the country, so the Asia Center recommends that applicants confirm, in advance, the visa type, paperwork, and procedures needed with Embassies and/or Consulates of the country planned in their itinerary.

The Japan Foundation shall provide documents (in both English and Japanese) necessary for visa applications.

- Prohibition of Other Fellowships and Grants

Fellows cannot be recipients of other fellowships or grants while being an Asia Center Fellow.
