

The Japan Foundation Fellowship for Arts and Culture in Asia

Application Instructions

For Fiscal 2027-28 [Q-FWA 2027]

JAPAN FOUNDATION
国際交流基金

1. About the Program and its Objectives

As part of the "Partnership to Co-create a Future with the Next Generation: WA Project 2.0", implemented by the Japan Foundation (JF), this program supports reciprocal opportunities for individuals working across diverse fields of arts and culture to undertake research, creative activities, collaborative projects, and network-building initiatives taking place outside their country of residence for a certain period. Through these exchanges, the program seeks to build strong relationship between Japan and ASEAN countries, strengthen multi-faceted human networks, and nurture the next generation of professionals who will lead collaborations and co-creations across diverse fields.

- b. The fellowship itinerary must be continuous and it CANNOT be divided into multiple segments.
- c. The recipient of grants or support from the Japan Foundation must not violate any local laws, regulations, or ordinances.
- d. To ensure the practicality of the program, applicants are required to have the acceptance of the Host Institution or Individual.

3. Eligible Applicants

(1) Eligible individuals

Individuals who are active in the eligible fields mentioned above (those include but are not limited to artists, researchers, curators, programmers, producers, etc.).

(2) Nationality and permanent residency

Applicants need to meet both of the following criteria.

- a. Applicants must reside in Japan or in one of the 11 ASEAN member countries.
- b. Applicants must hold nationality, citizenship, or permanent residency in Japan or in one of the 11 ASEAN countries.

(3) Other necessary conditions

- a. Applicants must be in good health, both physically and mentally.
- b. Applicants must be proficient in either Japanese or English.
 - * Should a language other than English or Japanese be required to pursue the proposed project, JF may request additional document(s) proving the applicant's language proficiency.
- c. Possess a bank account that can accept remittance from Japan (the Japan Foundation Headquarters) prior to or by the time of the remittance. The name of said bank account's holder must be the same as the applicant's.

4. Ineligibility

- (1) Those who intend to conduct activities in fields outside the above-mentioned Eligible fields.
- (2) Undergraduates; master's degree candidates; those intending to enroll in undergraduate or master's courses at universities in research destinations; or graduates who are to pursue Ph.D. courses in research destinations.
- (3) Those who intend to use this Fellowship for political or religious purposes.
- (4) Those who intend to work for profit-making or fund-raising purposes.
- (5) Those whose main intention is to enhance their language ability.

- (6) Those who are receiving fellowship, scholarships, and grants etc. from entities other than JF for the same duration as the JF Fellowship.

5. Benefits of the Fellowship

(1) Fellowship period

- b. Multiple applications from the same applicant will make all applications invalid.

8. Basic Terms and Conditions

- (1) Grant programs of the Japan Foundation are operated in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the Foundation.
- (2) The Fellowship's commencement date for FY2027 must fall between July 1, 2027 and March 31, 2028.
- (3) In principle, no change of the commencement date (date of arrival in destination) or of the completion date (date of departure from destination of the Fellowship) will be allowed. If a Fellow must change these dates due to unavoidable circumstances, they must obtain the Foundation's approval beforehand.
- (4) No extension of the duration of the Fellowship can be allowed for any reason whatsoever.
- (5) In principle, traveling to countries other than the approved activity location(s) during the fellowship is not allowed.
- (6) If a successful applicant is offered any other grant or fellowship whose duration overlaps with that of this Fellowship, they must decline either this Fellowship or the other grant/fellowship for the overlapping period.
- (7) Applicants are responsible for making the necessary arrangements with institutions/individuals who will support and cooperate with them during the Fellowship period. Fellows are also responsible for finding their own accommodations.

9. Terms of Agreement

By applying to our program, the applicant will be deemed to have agreed to this statement:

(1) Obligations of Fellows

- a. Fellows are expected to devote their full time to the pursuit of the goals described in their applications.
- b. Fellows are responsible for all causes and effects resulting from their activities during the Fellowship. The Japan Foundation shall not be responsible or liable for any illnesses or accidents that occur during the Fellowship period.
- c. Regardless of short-term / long-term, Fellows must attend an orientation meeting before the commencement of the fellowship or shortly after arriving at their activity destination(s) and hold a reporting session before leaving their activity location(s), which will be held at the Japan Foundation Tokyo Headquarters (hereafter "JF Headquarters") or the Japan Foundation overseas offices (hereafter "JF overseas office"). However, if their activity destination(s) does not have JF overseas offices or is far from JF Headquarters and JF overseas offices, or they are based in places that are far from JF Headquarters and JF overseas offices, Fellows shall discuss with the Japan Foundation to find reasonable ways to hold an orientation meeting and a reporting session.

- d. Those who are granted with long-term fellowship must attend a catch-up session either face-to-face or online periodically throughout the duration of the fellowship. If it is deemed unreasonable or difficult due to their activity content(s), they must submit Periodic Reports.
 - e. Fellows are to submit a final report to the Japan Foundation within a designated time frame.
 - f. If Fellows are mentioned in the media during the Fellowship period, Fellows are, in principle, to specify that they are in Japan with support from The Japan Foundation Fellowship for Arts and Culture in Asia.
 - g. Fellows are required to acknowledge support from The Japan Foundation Fellowship for Arts and Culture in Asia when the outcomes of the Fellow's research project are publicized or presented to the public.
 - h. Fellows may be asked to give a public lecture based on their research theme.
 - i. Should there be any transgressions of the above/regulations of the Japan Foundation, the Fellowship will be revoked, and the Japan Foundation may ask for a refund of the entire sum and additional penalty charges (if any) from the Fellow.
 - j. The Japan Foundation is intolerant of any fraudulent activity by applicants during the application process or throughout the Fellowship period. Committing any form of fraud with regard to the Japan Foundation subsidies, etc., could result in penalty measures such as a revocation of the decision to provide Fellowships in whole or in part, the required return of benefits including additional charges, late payment charges, suspension of the applicant's eligibility to apply for a grant for a certain period of time, and/or other legal actions (Ref. "Act on Regulation of Execution of Budget Pertaining to Subsidies, etc." (Act No. 179 of 1955)).
- (2) Disclosure of information on the project
- a. If the project is selected, the information such as the name of the applicant/organization and the outline of the project will be made public in the Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation (Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyo Jisseki), the Annual Report, on the JF's website and in other public relations materials.
 - b. When the JF receives a request for disclosure of information in accordance with the "Act on Access to Information Held by Incorporated Administrative Agencies" (Act No. 140 of 2001), application forms submitted to the JF, except for non-disclosure information stipulated in such act, will be disclosed, in principle.
- (3) Handling of personal information
- a. Compliance with applicable laws
To the extent applicable, the Japan Foundation will comply with the "Act on the Protection of Personal Information" (Act No. 57 of 2003) (the "Act"), related Cabinet Orders and Ministerial Orders, and various guidelines established by the Personal Information Protection Commission and any agencies authorized by the said Commission, the "EU General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR")," the Personal Information Protection Law of the People's Republic of China and related laws and regulations (the "Chinese Laws"), and other laws and regulations in relation to protection of personal information in relevant countries and regions, etc., and when handling any personal information, the Japan Foundation will properly collect, use and control the same. For more information on the Japan Foundation's efforts to protect personal information (privacy policy), please visit the following websites:

[Sensitive data on applicants]

Personal data such as medical history, medical examination results, other health-related information, and bank account information.

c. Purposes of use and period of personal information

(a) Based on the consent of the applicant, the Japan Foundation will use the Personal Information acquired from the applicant for screening, notification of screening results, implementation of the project, post-evaluation, communication to successful applicants and for any and all other purposes for management of applicants and successful applicants (the "Purposes of Use").

(b) For the proper and smooth operation of the Japan Foundation projects, any information such as the applicants' names, genders, jobs, titles, affiliations, project periods, project content, etc. will be: posted on published materials, such as the Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation (Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyo Jisseki), the Annual Report and the Japan Foundation's website; used for preparation of statistics materials; and used for formulation of future Japan Foundation projects.

(c) In addition to the information specified in (b) above, the applicants' contact information (i.e., address, e-mail address and phone number) will be used to: request the applicants to answer questionnaires as follow-up to the project after completion thereof; provide a notice regarding other Japan Foundation projects; request the applicants to provide information for formulation of future Japan Foundation projects, and so on.

- (d) The Japan Foundation will handle the Personal Information of the applicants for the period necessary to achieve the Purposes of Use stated above.
- d. Provision of personal information
 - (a) The Japan Foundation may provide the Personal Information acquired from the applicants to the following organizations, to the minimum extent necessary. The Japan Foundation will make sure that the recipients take measures to ensure the security of the Personal Information.
 - i. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, Embassies or Consulates-General of Japan, etc. (for arrangement of visas, handling of security control, support for project implementation, etc.)
 - ii. Airlines, insurance companies and the agencies thereof, etc. (for procurement of overseas travel accident insurance, etc.)
 - iii. Evaluators such as outside experts, etc. (for screening, post-evaluation, etc.)
 - iv. News media and other organizations (for public relations for the projects)
 - v. Other organizations and individuals who receive the information as needed for the projects.
 - (b) The applicants' medical examination results and health information may be provided to medical institutions, medical professionals, insurance companies and relevant government agencies for immigration procedures, procurement of overseas travel insurance and claims therefor, and healthcare and safety control after entry into or departure from Japan.
 - (c) The Personal Information acquired from the applicants may be used or provided for purposes other than those specified in the Purposes of Use, in accordance with Article 69, Paragraph 2 of the Act, such as providing such Personal Information for administrative organs, other incorporated administrative agencies, local public entities or local incorporated administrative agencies (the "Administrative Organs") as long as the Administrative Organs use the same within the scope necessary to conduct the affairs or services prescribed by applicable laws and regulations and where there is a reasonable ground for such use.
- e. Cross-border transfer of personal information
 - (a) The Japan Foundation may handle the Personal Information acquired from the applicants by transferring the same to the base located in Japan (including the Japan Foundation Headquarters) or other countries or regions for the Purposes of Use specified above. The Japan Foundation shall appropriately control the Personal Information in such countries or regions.
 - (b) In addition to the case specified in the preceding paragraph, the Japan Foundation may provide the Personal Information acquired from the applicants to necessary organizations or individuals in Japan or other countries or regions for the Purposes of Use specified above as needed for the projects, only when the conditions stipulated in laws and regulations are satisfied.
- f. Security control of personal information

The Japan Foundation shall endeavor to prevent unauthorized access and leakage of the Personal Information of the applicants by way of taking appropriate security control measures and control means.

g. Rights pertaining to the personal information of the applicant

The applicant has the right to access his/her Personal Information, correct inaccurate Personal Information, suspend the use of the Personal Information, etc., to the extent that the Act, the GDPR, the Chinese Laws and other laws pertaining to protection of the Personal Information in the relevant country or region apply.

h. Filing of objections against handling of personal information

In the case where the applicant is dissatisfied with the handling of the Personal Information in the Japan Foundation, such applicant may state his/her objections to the Japan Foundation to the extent permitted by the applicable laws and regulations. In accordance with the applicable laws and regulations, the applicant may also file objections to the authority that has jurisdiction over protection of the Personal Information in the country to which the applicant belongs.

i. Personal information of persons involved in the project

The Personal Information of persons involved in the project other than the applicant, which is submitted by the applicant to the Japan Foundation, shall also be handled in the same manner as stipulated in a. to h. above, and therefore, the applicants should provide explanations in advance to the persons involved in the project and obtain their consent.

j. Contact Information

Please use the contact details specified in “10. Contact” for any opinions, questions, etc. regarding any matters specified in this “Handling of personal information” section.

k. Revocation of consent

The applicant has the right to revoke his/her consent to any matters specified in this “Handling of personal information” section at any time. The revocation of consent does not affect the legality of the handling of the Personal Information prior to the revocation. In addition, when the applicant does not provide his/her consent or revokes his/her consent, such applicant may not be able to receive necessary information and/or services from the Japan Foundation.

(4) Response to the spread of infectious diseases

Depending on the spread of infectious diseases, appropriate measures may be required when implementing a project in accordance with the regulations and instructions of the relevant authorities. Please understand that the Japan Foundation may unavoidably revoke its grant decision, change the substance of its grant or the conditions attached, or ask Fellows to modify their plan, including their original Fellowship commencement date, as a result of changes in circumstances that have occurred after the decision to provide the grant.
