Ishibashi Foundation/The Japan Foundation Fellowship
for Research on Japanese Art Application Instructions

1. PURPOSE

This program aims to support specialists in Japanese visual arts by providing an opportunity for curators and researchers from abroad to conduct research in Japan, and by so doing, promote the study of the field and the introduction of Japanese art overseas.

2. ELIGIBILITY

(1) Eligible Activities and Area

The research project related to Japanese visual arts should have clear objectives and plans to achieve its goal. The project should necessitate travel to Japan in order to carry out research intensively over a short period of time. The main target area is contemporary art. Priority will be given to projects that include in its proposals, concrete plans for research results to be shared widely among the overseas public through the implementation of exhibitions or the publication of books.

(2) Eligible Applicants

Art professionals who conduct the activities stipulated in “(1) Eligible Activities and Area” living in a country outside of Japan (curators, researchers, educators, conservators, etc.).

(3) Nationality and Permanent Residency

- a. Applicants must hold nationality (or permanent residency) in countries that have diplomatic relations with Japan.
- b. A Japanese applicant who does not hold nationality (or permanent residency) in a country other than Japan is not eligible even if they reside abroad.
- c. An applicant holding nationality of a country not maintaining diplomatic relations with Japan is not eligible to apply, even if the applicant has permanent residency in a country with diplomatic relations with Japan.

(4) Other Necessary Conditions

- a. Applicants must be in good health both physically and mentally.
- b. Applicants must be proficient in either Japanese or English.
- c. Applicants must be able to stay continuously in Japan for the term of fellowship.
- d. Applicants must not violate the law or regulations of their own country by receiving a fellowship from the Japan Foundation.

(5) Ineligibility

Individuals meeting any of the following conditions are not eligible to apply:

- a. Those who intend to conduct research in an area other than Japanese visual arts.

- b. Those who intend to create artworks.
- c. Undergraduates; Master's degree candidates; those intending to enroll in undergraduate or Master's courses at universities in Japan; or graduates who are to pursue Ph.D. courses in Japan.
- d. Those who intend to use this Fellowship for political or religious purposes.
- e. Those who intend to work for profit-making or fund-raising purposes.
- f. Those who intend to enhance Japanese-language ability.
- g. Those who plan to receive other grants concurrently with this Fellowship.
- h. Those who apply for other grant program of the Japan Foundation in the same fiscal year.

3. BENEFITS

(1) Fellowship Period

21 days to 59 days

(2) Grant Coverage

The following are provided to successful applicants (hereinafter called "Fellow(s)").

- a. Per Diem: JPY 17,000/day
- b. Airfare: Round-trip discount economy-class airfare (the most direct route)
- c. Insurance: Overseas traveler's insurance policy (The insurance coverage will be determined by the Japan Foundation.)
- d. Research Allowance: Actual amount, up to JPY 100,000 (Items eligible for coverage will be specified separately.)

4. SELECTION POLICY

In addition to the contents, significance and viability of the proposed research, we will take into consideration whether the proposal is in accordance with the Japan Foundation's mission. We will also take personal qualifications, such as the applicant's career and achievements, as important criteria for the reviewing process.

- (1) The purpose and goal of research should be clear, and the goal should be achievable during the proposed term of fellowship.
- (2) Research in Japan should be essential to the project.
- (3) The project should be planned in a concrete and practical framework and the proposed term of fellowship should be of an appropriate length that enables the achievement of the project goal.
- (4) Applicants should hold notable achievements in their respective fields. The proposed project should be consistent with these achievements and should potentially make future contributions to the field.
- (5) Applicants should have potential for future development as Japanese art experts.
- (6) Achievements based upon the fellowship should extend beyond the applicant's individual output and be shared with society at large through exhibitions and publications.
- (7) Priority will be given to applicants who are likely to present the results of their research shortly after the completion of their fellowship.
- (8) Applicants should potentially contribute to the development of their research field and the establishment of its infrastructure.

5. APPLICATION PROCEDURES

(1) Where you can obtain an application form

An application form can be downloaded from the website of the Japan Foundation.

URL: <https://www.jpf.go.jp/e/program/culture.html>

(2) Submission of an application form and the deadline

Submit the application form (one original and one photocopy) to the local Japan Foundation overseas office by December 1, 2021. If there are no Japan Foundation offices in the applicant's country, the applicant should submit applications to the nearest Japanese diplomatic mission (Embassy or Consulate-General of Japan). (cf. "12. Contact")

(3) Points to be Noted

- a. We do not accept applications via E-mail or FAX. Due to the influence of COVID-19, it may take longer than usual to send in your application, so please allow sufficient time to meet the deadline. If there are significant difficulties in the preparation and mailing of the required documents due to social conditions during the application period, please contact the above and ask for instructions.
- b. Applications not submitted on the Japan Foundation's official forms will not be accepted.
- c. All documents submitted will not be returned.
- d. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.
- e. Multiple applications from the same applicant will make all applications invalid.

6. RESULTS NOTIFICATION

(1) The results will be announced to the applicants by the end of April 2022 by the Japan Foundation Headquarters or its overseas offices. (The Japan Foundation will not announce the results of the screening to referees of the applicants.)

(2) The Japan Foundation cannot discuss the reason of results.

7. NUMBER OF APPROVED APPLICATION

(1) The number of approved/applications in the previous year was 11/22.

(2) For details, please see our website:

https://www.jpf.go.jp/e/project/culture/exhibit/exchange/fellow_ishibashi/index.html

8. BASIC TERMS AND CONDITIONS

(1) Grant programs of the Japan Foundation are operated in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the Foundation.

(2) This fellowship is tenable only in Japan.

(3) The fellowship's Beginning Date for the fiscal 2022-2023 must fall between June 1, 2022 and March 15, 2023.

(4) In principle, no change of the Beginning Date (date of arrival in Japan) or of the End Date (date of departure from Japan) of the fellowship will be allowed. If a Fellow must change these dates for unavoidable reasons, he/she must obtain the Foundation's approval beforehand.

- (5) No extension of the duration of the fellowship can be allowed for any reason whatsoever.
- (6) Leaving Japan temporarily is not approved in principle.
- (7) If a successful applicant is offered any other grant or fellowship whose duration overlaps with that of this fellowship, he/she must decline either this fellowship or the other grant/fellowship for the overlapping period.
- (8) Applicants are responsible for making the necessary arrangements with institutions/individuals who will support and cooperate with them during the fellowship period. Fellows are also responsible for finding their own accommodations.

9. OBLIGATIONS

- (1) Fellows are expected to devote their full time to the pursuit of the goals described in their applications in Japan.
- (2) Fellows are responsible for all causes and effects resulting from his/her activities during the fellowship. The Japan Foundation shall not be responsible or liable for any illnesses or accidents that occur during the fellowship period.
- (3) Fellows must attend an orientation and a wrap-up session held at the Japan Foundation Headquarters in Tokyo shortly after arriving in Japan and just before leaving Japan. Therefore, Fellows are expected to arrange their international flight to and from Tokyo.
- (4) Fellows are to submit a final report and the outcome of the project (i.e. books or reports, etc.) to the Japan Foundation.
- (5) If Fellows are mentioned in the media during the fellowship period, Fellows are, in principle, to specify that they are in Japan with support from the Ishibashi Foundation/The Japan Foundation Fellowship for Research on Japanese Art.
- (6) Fellows are required to acknowledge support from the Ishibashi Foundation/The Japan Foundation Fellowship for Research on Japanese Art when the outcome of the fellow's research project is publicized or presented to the public.
- (7) Should there be any transgressions of the above and regulations of the Japan Foundation, the fellowship will be revoked, and the Japan Foundation may ask for a refund of the entire sum and additional penalty charges (if any) from the Fellow.
- (8) Fellows may be asked to give a public lecture based on his/her research theme during the fellowship period.
- (9) The Japan Foundation is intolerant of any fraudulent activity from the application process through the project period. Committing any form of fraud with regard to the Japan Foundation subsidies etc. could result in penalty measures such as revocation of decision to provide fellowships in whole or in part, request return of benefits including additional charges and late payment charges, suspension of the application for a certain period of time, and/or other legal actions (Ref. "Act on Regulation of Execution of Budget Pertaining to Subsidies, etc." (Act No. 179 of 1955)).

10. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

- (1) Details of projects supported by the Japan Foundation (e.g., the name of the applicant, project descriptions) will be made public in the Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jisseyi (Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation), on the Japan Foundation's website, and in other public-relations materials.
- (2) When a request for information based on the "Act on Access to Information Held by Independent Administrative Agencies" (Act No. 140 of 2001), is received, materials such as submitted application forms will be disclosed (unless stipulated by laws as not to be disclosed).

11. HANDLING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- (1) The Japan Foundation handles personal information appropriately and in accordance with the "Act on the Protection of Personal Information Held by Incorporated Administrative Agencies, etc." (Act No. 59 of 2003) (the "Act") and other applicable laws. Details of the Japan Foundation's privacy policy can be reviewed at the following website:
<https://www.jpff.go.jp/e/privacy>
- (2) The Japan Foundation uses personal information on the application documents, project reports, and deliverables (including, without limitation, photographs taken during or prior to this program) (the "Information") for screening, implementation, and evaluation procedures of the project. They may also be used for the following purposes:
 - a. Provided information, such as names, job and position, affiliation, project duration, and project description, etc. are published in the Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jisseyi (Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation), the Annual Report, on the Japan Foundation's website, and in other public-relations materials. They are also used in compiling statistics and released to the press for publicity purposes.
 - b. There may be cases in which this Information is disclosed to the extent necessary to
 - (a) Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, Embassies or Consulates-General of Japan, etc. at the place where participant lives in order to apply for a visa, etc.
 - (b) Airline companies, insurance companies or their agencies, etc. in order to cover your activity during your stay in Japan by an overseas traveler's personal accident insurance, etc.
 - (c) Outside consultants in order to facilitate the screening process and the evaluation of the results of projects.
 - (d) Other fellows for the purpose of exchange of information.
 - (e) Hosting institution(s) and individual(s).
 - c. There may also be cases in which the Japan Foundation sends questionnaires to the addresses written on the application documents after the project has ended.
 - d. There may also be cases in which the Japan Foundation uses the information written on the application form to contact the applicants to inform them of other Japan Foundation activities.
 - e. The Information may be used or provided for purposes other than those listed in items (a) to (e) above, in the cases provided under Article 9, Paragraph 2 of the Act, such as cases where such Information is provided to a government agency, an independent administrative institution, a local government or a local independent administrative institution (the “Government Agency, etc.”) which uses such Information to the extent necessary for executing its duty or business stipulated by the laws and regulations and where there are reasonable grounds for using the Information.

- (3) Applicants are requested to inform all individuals whose personal information appears on the application materials that the above-mentioned policy shall also apply to those individuals’ personal information.
- (4) It is considered that by applying to this program, participants agree to the use of personal information for the above-mentioned policy.

12. Response to the Spread of the COVID-19

Depending on the impacts of widespread novel coronavirus, appropriate measures may be required when implementing the project in accordance with the regulations and instructions of the relevant authorities. Please understand that the Japan Foundation may unavoidably revoke its grant decision, change the substance of its grant or the conditions attached, or request the Fellows to modify their plan including their original Fellowship start date as a result of changes in circumstances that have occurred after the decision to provide the grant.
