

JF-JSA-ASEAN Fellowship Program

Section in Charge: Japanese Studies Department

◆ Outline

In order to develop the next generation of human resources and thus build a strong and long-lasting relationship of trust between Southeast Asia and Japan, this program, with the support of the Japanese Studies Association of Southeast Asia (JSA-ASEAN), provides opportunities to do research and engage in exchange activities in Japan for researchers in the field of Japanese studies from Southeast Asia.

◆ Eligible Applicants (in Southeast Asia only) and Duration

1 Doctoral Candidates

Applicants must be Ph.D. candidates at graduate schools in Southeast Asia conducting research related to Japan (comparative research included) in the humanities or social sciences, who have completed (or will have completed by the beginning of the Fellowship) the necessary course work and find it necessary to visit Japan for a period of 4 to 12 months to complete their dissertations.

2 Researchers

Applicants must be researchers affiliated with an institution in Southeast Asia who have a Ph.D. degree or equivalent professional experience at the time of application, and are conducting research related to Japan (comparative research included) in the humanities or social sciences, whose projects require them to travel to Japan for a short period of 21 to 89 days, or a long period of 4 to 12 months, to carry out doing research, gathering materials, participating in exchange activities, etc.

◆ Eligibility

1 All of the following criteria must be met.

- (1) Applicants must be Ph.D. candidates at graduate school in Southeast Asia, or researchers affiliated with an institution in Southeast Asia who are conducting research related to Japan.
- (2) Applicants must secure all affiliation arrangements by the application deadline.
- (3) Applicants must be in good health and proficient in either Japanese or English.

- (4) In principle, applicants must be able to stay continuously in Japan for the term of Fellowship from the beginning date of the Fellowship, which is the arrival date in Japan, which must fall between June 20, 2027 and March 20, 2028.
 - (5) Previous recipients of Japan Foundation Fellowships (not only the JF-JSA-ASEAN Fellowship but also all the other Fellowships of the Japan Foundation) are eligible to reapply only if, on April 1, 2027, a period of full three years has elapsed since the termination of their most recent Fellowship. Previous short-term (89 days or less) Fellows are eligible to reapply only if, on April 1, 2027, one full year has elapsed since the termination of their most recent Fellowship.
- 1 Individuals meeting any of the following conditions are not eligible to apply:
- (1) Those who hold nationality in a country with which Japan does not have diplomatic relations.
 - (2) Applicants in the natural sciences, medicine or engineering;
 - (3) Undergraduates; Master's degree candidates; those intending to enroll in Undergraduate or Master's courses at universities in Japan; or graduates intending to enroll in Ph.D. courses in Japan;
 - (4) Those who primarily intend to enhance their Japanese-language ability or industry-related technical skills, to develop and/or produce Japanese-language teaching materials, or to acquire artistic training in the area of Japanese traditional culture (tea ceremony, flower arrangement, etc.);
 - (5) Those who plan to receive other grants/scholarships/fellowships covering expenses for travel to and accommodation in Japan concurrently with the Fellowship;
 - (6) Those who are registered residents in Japan as of April 1, 2027 and fail to deregister their residency for overseas relocation by the Fellowship start date;
 - (7) Those who apply for any other grant program of the Japan Foundation, except for the "JF-GJS Fellowship, or " the "JF-Nichibunken Fellowship," programs.
- * The JF-GJS Fellowship program is for post-doctoral researchers and is co-organized with the Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia of the University of Tokyo. The JF-Nichibunken Fellowship program is also for post-doctoral researchers and is co-organized with the International Research Center for Japanese Studies.
