

Grant Program for Strengthening Research Networks to Co-create a Future with the Next Generation Application Instructions

For Fiscal 2026-27 [RJS-WJ 2026]

1. Objective

In order to build a strong and long-lasting relationship of trust between Southeast Asia and Japan, this program provides grants toward various Japanese studies projects implemented by Southeast Asian organizations with the aim of developing the next generation of human resources in the field of Japanese studies and promoting mutual understanding.

2. Eligible Projects

- (1) Japanese studies projects (including online projects) implemented between April 1, 2026 and March 31, 2027 that will further promote and expand the horizon of Japanese studies and interest in Japan. Examples of such projects include: study in Japan; research or conferences on Japan; inviting scholars or researchers from Japan to deliver lectures on Japan; publications that promote and contribute to the development of Japanese studies; obtaining books and materials on Japanese studies. Multiple applications from one organization will not be accepted, but one organization may submit an application for a single comprehensive project consisting of multiple sub-projects.
- (2) Projects must fulfill the following requirements:
 - a. It must be impossible or difficult for the applicants to achieve the purpose of the project without funding from the Japan Foundation.
 - b. The plan and implementation method must be appropriate and there must be sufficient expectation that the project will yield positive results.
- (3) Projects that fall under any of the following are not eligible:
 - a. Projects for religious or political purposes;
 - b. Projects that include commercial activities;
 - c. Projects with the direct purpose of disseminating specific doctrines, claims, or political measures;
 - d. Projects in the field of medicine, technology, or the natural sciences;
 - e. Projects for the organization of or participation in sporting events and training;
 - f. Art and cultural activities;
 - g. Projects with the main purpose of goodwill exchanges;
 - h. Projects that directly implement social welfare activities or international cooperation activities;
 - i. Tourism-oriented projects;
 - j. Language education projects.

3. Eligible Applicants

- (1) Not-for-profit organizations (e.g., academic institutions from university level upwards, research institutions, or academic societies) in Southeast Asia are eligible to apply. Applicants must meet the following requirements (individuals are not eligible to apply):
 - a. Applicants must have the capacity needed to implement the planned project(s).
 - b. The receipt of grants or other forms of subsidies from the Japan Foundation must not violate any local laws, regulations, or ordinances.
 - c. Applicant has a bank account for receiving grants, or is able to set up a bank account before the grant payment period.
- (2) The Japan Foundation does not provide grants for:
 - a. Foreign governments (including their administrative organs, embassies, and consulates-general, but excluding educational, cultural, or research institutes, such as universities or museums);
 - b. International organizations to which Japanese national government organs contribute;
 - c. Organizations based in countries that do not have diplomatic relations with Japan;
 - d. Japanese national government organs, local governments, incorporated administrative agencies, and local incorporated administrative agencies, as well as education and research institutions and other organizations, institutions, and facilities attached to or established by these (excluding organizations with their own legal personalities, such as incorporated associations or incorporated foundations).
- (3) Points to note
 - Organizations that have continually received support from this program for the past three fiscal years will not be provided with grants unless the Japan Foundation judges there is a compelling reason for them to continue receiving such support. This is a measure to avoid giving ongoing support to the same applicants, and to distribute grants to as many applicants as possible. If one does apply for a fourth consecutive fiscal year, low priority will be placed on such an application.
 - Organizations in Taiwan considering application should contact the Japan-Taiwan Exchange Association (JTEA), Taipei Office, with which the Japan Foundation cooperates.

4. Grant Coverage

- (1) Assistance will take the form of a grant covering part of the direct expenses incurred and paid during FY2026 (from April 1, 2026 to March 31, 2027). The following are examples of expenses that may be considered for grant coverage:
 - a. Travel expenses (for international and domestic airfare, other transportation, accommodation and per diem, etc.);
 - b. Meeting expenses (for preparing materials, venues, equipment, public relations, etc.);
 - c. Honorariums (for lecturers, collaborators, interpreters, assistants, etc.);
 - d. Other direct expenses (for purchasing materials, etc.).
- (2) The following are not supported by the Japan Foundation:

- a. Indirect expenses;
 - b. Administrative expenses of the institution (as well as salary for administrative staff);
 - c. Costs to purchase goods that may remain for a long time;
 - d. Expenses related to land and buildings (excluding rental fees for facilities for a specific project event).
- (3) Points to note
- The grant amount will be decided upon consideration of each project's scale and necessity.
 - Grants made in the past averaged around 900,000 Japanese yen for each project, but the actual grant amount may be lower or higher than this amount. If requesting a much larger sum than this approximate average, the applicant should be prepared for two eventualities: (a) the project may be rejected since it is deemed to be beyond the scope of the Japan Foundation to support it; or (b) the project may be supported but at a much lower level than requested.
 - Individual researchers who wish to conduct research in Japan should apply to the "Japan Foundation Japanese Studies Fellowship Program."

5. Selection Policy

- (1) Projects will be selected by comprehensively considering applications, in terms of their contents, the need for the Japan Foundation's support to the project, the feasibility and effectiveness of the project, the validity of the proposed budget, the safety and security in the area of the project, etc. The Japan Foundation also takes into account the regional and national distribution of its funding, and may select projects accordingly, if need be.
- (2) Lower priority is given to:
 - a. Projects wherein the total cost is sought exclusively from the Japan Foundation; and
 - b. Projects based on existing partnerships, such as agreements between organizations and sister institution relationships.
- (3) A proposed project shall not be awarded multiple Japan Foundation grants.
