

Japanese-Language Program for Specialists (Specialists in Cultural and Academic Fields) Application Instructions

For Fiscal 2026-27 [KC-G 2026]

1. Objectives

With the aim of supporting specialists who require Japanese-language proficiency in order to smoothly perform their specialized work and research activities (such as researchers, graduate students, librarians, and museum and art museum curators), this program provides training to improve their Japanese-language ability by learning practical Japanese and actually using it in their research and specialized work-related activities, conducted at the Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai.

* In FY2026, only a six-month course will be offered.

2. Program Outline

(1) Duration

From early October 2026 to late March 2027

(2) Course venue

The Japan Foundation Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai (JFJLI, Kansai) (Tajiri-cho, Sennan-gun, Osaka, Japan)

(3) Description of the program

During the training course, participants will independently conduct interviews with specialists in their field as well as plan their own trips to visit related facilities and, as they gather and understand research materials, they will be able to acquire the skills needed to exchange, collect, and report information in Japanese. In addition to learning Japanese in classrooms, there are also periods for participants to focus on their specialized activities, so participants will need to independently plan their activities with a specific theme. At the end of the course participants are required to make a presentation about their research themes as their accomplishments of the course and specialized activities conducted during their stay in Japan.

* This training program is designed to develop the Japanese language proficiency required for research activities and specialist work, and does not provide education in specific fields of study. Participants must attend all classes as a general rule, and specialized activities such as research and fieldwork must be conducted outside of class hours or during designated intensive periods.

3. Eligibility

Individuals must fulfill the following to apply:

(1) Individuals who fulfill a. or b. and need Japanese-language proficiency to carry out their specialist work and research activities.

a. Individuals who fulfill at least one of the following requirements and have an employment relationship with the organization outside Japan they are currently affiliated with, at the time of application and participation in the program. It is expected that participants will continue working in the same organization after completing this program.

- (a) Individuals who carry out research activities as teachers (professors, instructors, teaching assistants, etc.), researchers, etc., at institutions of higher education, such as universities, research centers, or other research organizations.
  - (b) Individuals who are engaged in a job of specialized research work in public sector organizations, such as government agencies, think tanks, etc.
  - (c) Individuals who are currently engaged in full-time librarian work at universities, colleges, other institutions of higher education, academic research institutions, cultural exchange organizations, or public libraries.
  - (d) Individuals who are currently engaged in full-time curatorial work at museums or regularly involved in organizing exhibitions, and who are working for international exchange programs that concern Japan.
- b. Individuals who are officially registered as full-time students in a Master's or Doctoral course of a graduate school outside Japan at the time of application and participation in the program (excluding non-degree students) and who are planning to write their Master's or Doctoral dissertation on a subject related to Japan.

Concerning undergraduate students of universities and colleges that issue a Master's degree upon graduation, applicants will be considered to fulfill this requirement, if they are in the final year and their age is 22 or older as of December 2, 2025.

- (2) Individuals applying for this program must obtain the permission of the representative of their affiliated organization mentioned above.
- (3) Individuals must be in a field of Japan-related social sciences or humanities.
  - * Includes interdisciplinary fields with natural and applied sciences.
- (4) Individuals who have a specific and detailed theme related to Japan in their study or work, and plan to make a presentation on the achievements.
- (5) Individuals who are nationals of a country that has diplomatic relations with Japan.
  - * Taiwanese are eligible to apply for this program.
- (6) Individuals who have not received compulsory education in Japan for more than three years.
- (7) Individuals in good physical and mental health.
- (8) Individuals who have Japanese-language proficiency that is equivalent to or higher than Level N4 in the Japanese-Language Proficiency Test (JLPT), Level 3 of the old JLPT, A2 level in the JF Standard for Japanese-Language Education at the time of application (please visit the official website of the JLPT <https://www.jlpt.jp/e/about/levelsummary.html>, or the website for the JF Standard for Japanese-Language Education <https://jfstandard.jp/f.go.jp> to find the summary of linguistic competencies required for each level.)
  - * Since this program is basically conducted in Japanese, applicants are required to meet the above criteria at the time of application, especially with regard to oral proficiency.
- (9) Individuals who are NOT scheduled to study abroad at a Japanese educational institution, participate in other training in Japan, work in Japan, or engage in other activities during the training program.

4. Expense Coverage

- (1) Provided to all participants:
  - a. Accommodation (a single room for each participant) within JFJLI, Kansai.

5. Selection Policy

Selection will be made in line with the following criteria, which will be comprehensively judged: the applicants' current Japanese-language proficiency, their needs for Japanese-language training, their research/work achievements and content, the possibility of their success in their specialized areas, and the possibility of improvement in their language skills. The following applicants will be given priority.

- (1) Specialists who have made outstanding achievements in their specific fields.
- (2) In the case of graduate school students, applicants in a Doctoral course rather than applicants in a Master's course.
- (3) Applicants with a specific and concrete theme in their study, who have a high need to study in Japan. Applicants who are highly specialized in their field and have the ability to independently conduct their specialized work/research will be given priority, since they are expected to study the Japanese language and conduct their work/research during the course.

- (4) In the view of ripple effect, applicants who belong to such affiliations as major institutions of higher education, research organizations or public sector organizations.
- (5) Individuals who are the age of 39 or under at the time of application.
- * Lower priority will be given to those who have participated in Japanese language training for duties or research conducted by JF in the past (e.g., "Program for Specialist in Cultural and Academic Fields", "Training Program for Teachers of the Japanese Language", etc.).
