Grant Program for Dispatching Artists and Cultural Specialists

Section in Charge: Performing Arts Section, Arts and Culture Department

◆ Outline

This program is designed to provide financial support for artists and Japanese cultural specialists who are invited by institutions outside Japan and participate in cultural events (e.g., performances, demonstrations, lectures and workshops) overseas with the aim of introducing Japanese arts and culture or of contributing to international society through arts and cultural projects.

◆ Eligibility

Applicants must be either:

- 1 Groups or individuals in the arts and cultural fields who are based in Japan and have received invitations to participate in cultural events overseas from foreign organizations;
- 2 Organizations and agencies, based in Japan, that arrange and produce the projects described above.

◆ Eligible Projects

- 1 Projects must be either:
 - (1) Performing arts (e.g., theatre, music, dance, folk arts, etc.);
 - (2) Lectures, workshops, and demonstrations related to Japanese culture, including sports.
- * Projects that are supported by grants from Japanese governmental organizations, government-affiliated agencies, independent administrative institutions of Japan, or the Japan-Korea Cultural Foundation are not eligible to receive grants under this program, including grants from third-party programs that are funded by any of the aforementioned organizations.
- * Projects with invitation from Japanese diplomatic missions abroad alone are not eligible for the grant.
- * Projects with invitation from applicant's branch office abroad alone are not eligible for the grant.

- * Please refer to "Exhibitions Abroad Support Program" for information on support for exhibitions on Japanese art and culture.
- 2 Project period
For projects which take place between April 1, 2027 and March 31, 2028 Project participants must depart Japan on or after April 1, 2027 and must be back in Japan by March 31, 2028.

◆ Grant Coverage

Partial support of the following expenditures:

- 1 International travel expense
- 2 Carriage (baggage/freight)
- * Please note that only the flights departing from Japan (round trip) are eligible for the grant.

◆ Number of Grants (Reference)

Exhibitions Abroad Support Program

Section in Charge: Visual Arts Section, Arts and Culture Department

◆ Outline

This program is designed to provide financial support for museums and art institutions overseas that organize exhibitions introducing Japanese art and culture to audiences overseas. In addition, this program is designed to support overseas international exhibitions such as biennials/triennials introducing Japanese artists and their works.

◆ Eligibility

Overseas museums and art institutions

- * If the exhibition travels to more than one venue, the host institution should consolidate the grant requests and only one application should be submitted for the whole project. The Japan Foundation will not accept multiple applications for one project.

◆ Eligible Projects

Exhibitions that will open between April 1, 2027 and March 31, 2028, and that will

- 1 Introduce Japanese art and culture, planned and executed by a museum or an art institution abroad;
- 2 Introduce Japanese artists and their works in the context of international exhibitions held abroad, such as biennials/triennials;
- 3 Be created through artist-in-residence programs abroad and promote the expansion of networks among artists, curators, and researchers in Japan and overseas, and have a clear concept and concrete plan for exhibitions.

◆ Grant Coverage

Part of the following expenses incurred and paid between April 1, 2027 and March 31, 2028:

- 1 Packing and shipping costs of art works (excluding insurance costs);
- 2 Catalogue production costs (including digital catalogue costs; for international exhibitions, support for catalogue production will be partial, based on the ratio of Japanese artists);

- 3 Traveling costs for dispatched or invited artists, curators, and specialists (air fare, train fare, and accommodation fees; excluding costs for preliminary research and development).
- * Please note that this program does not cover the production cost of art works, installation costs and artists' fees.

◆ Number of Grants (Reference)

21 out of 78 applications for FY 2026

◆ Selection Policy

- 1 Screening will be conducted after consulting with experts in the field.
- 2 The following projects will be given a relatively higher evaluation:
 - (1) Exhibition projects with strong curatorial values that have not yet been staged in the applicants' countries;
 - (2) Projects that relate to major diplomatic anniversary events (see p. 2)
- 3 The following projects will be given lower priority:
 - (1) Projects organized by museums or institutions that have recently received financial support from the Japan Foundation;
 - (2) Traveling exhibitions that have previously received grants from the Japan Foundation;
 - (3) Projects that are primarily part of friendship and goodwill activities among sister cities, schools or institutions;
 - (4) Exhibitions composed mainly of art works of public subscription; and
 - (5) Exhibitions organized by hobby groups or similar membership associations..

Support Program for Translation and Publication

Section in Charge: Planning and Coordination / Literary Arts Section, Arts and Culture Department

◆ Outline

This program is designed to provide partial financial support for overseas publishers intending to translate and publish works originally written in Japanese. The program aims to foster better understanding of Japanese culture by encouraging overseas publishers to translate and publish Japanese works. The grant covers part of the translation and publishing costs (e.g., costs for paper, typesetting, platemaking, printing, and binding).

◆ Eligibility

Publishing companies outside of Japan.

◆ Eligible Projects

Translation and publication projects of works written in Japanese and already published in Japan (works of fiction and works of nonfiction in humanities and social sciences). The projects must fulfill all of the following requirements:

- 1 The translated work must be published between April 1, 2027, and February 29, 2028. However, applicants may apply for support for translation fee only, provided that they publish the translated edition within two years of completion of the translation. They may also apply for support for the publication costs of the same project in a different fiscal year (e.g., applying for translation support in the first year and for publication support in the following year).
- 2 The original work written in Japanese must already be published at the time of application.
- 3 As a general rule, translations must be made directly from the original works. Regarding translation and publication in languages where the translator pool is limited, approval may be given for support for translation from a previously translated edition of the work.
- 4 In principle, the contract for acquisition of translation rights of the original work must have been concluded. In case of indirect translation, permission must also be obtained from the copyright holder of the foreign language edition from which the applicant's translator intends to translate. As for the translation fee, a written contract between the publisher and the translator must have been concluded at the time the application is submitted. Submission of a copy of each contract is required for the application.

- 5 A part of the draft translation should accompany the application. The draft should be equivalent to approximately 30 pages of the original work.
 - 6 The plan for the project should be appropriate to the realistic and practical completion of the translation.
 - 7 Projects must not be used for religious or political purposes.
- * Grant applications for e-book publication projects are accepted.
 - * The following categories of works are not eligible:
 - Works originally written in a language other than Japanese;
 - Reprints of previously published translations
 - Periodicals (including special issues), proceedings, exhibition catalogues, travel brochures, language dictionaries, and Japanese-language teaching materials;
 - Works not expected to secure wide distribution, including those only to be published for donation purposes;
 - * Applicants cannot reapply for projects that were rejected in the past without a new plan and/or revised translation.
 - * If payment to the translator is to be in the form of royalties (i.e., the translator is paid only based on the actual number of copies sold after the book is published), the applicant may not apply for support for translation (it is possible to apply for support for publication only).

◆ Grant Coverage

Part of the following costs paid between April 1, 2027, and February 29, 2028:

- 1 Translation fee (paid to a translator by an applicant);
 - 2 Publication costs such as costs for paper, typesetting/platemaking, printing, and binding; paid to printing companies.
- * Copies of the contract between the translator(s) and applicant, as well as estimates for the costs that the applicant intends to cover by the grant, from the printing or other companies, will be required at the time of application. Receipts from the translator(s), printing company, and paper manufacturers, will be needed when the applicant claims the grant payment after publishing the book.
 - Please note that only the expenses paid on and after April 1, 2027, are applicable. Any expenses paid before April 1, 2027, are not applicable.
 - The grant shall cover part of the translation cost and part of the publication costs mentioned above.

- Costs for editing, acquisition of translation rights, copyright clearance, proofreading, and other in-house expenses are not applicable.
- Grant payments will be made after the completion of translation and/or publication.
- The grant will not cover project expenses funded by other organizations.

◆ Number and the average amount of assistance of Grants (Reference)

Number of assistance: 77 out of 125 applications for FY 2026

Average amount of assistance for FY 2026: Approximately JPY 618,000

◆ Selection Policy

- 1 Screening will be conducted after consulting with experts in the field.
- 2 Relatively higher evaluation will be given to the translation and/or publication of the following works:
 - (1) The titles in Worth Sharing — A Selection of Japanese Books Recommended for Translation and Lifelong Favorites — Selections from the Bookshelves of Young Readers in Japan. The list of the titles is available on the Japan Foundation's website:
<https://www.worthsharing.jpf.go.jp/en/>
 - (2) Works that are considered to have a wide influence on society; not only limited to researchers but expected to get a wide range of readers in the applicant's country;
 - (3) Works by authors who have never been translated and published in the applicant's country before, or works directly translated from Japanese works in languages or areas where translations of Japanese works are rarely published.
- 3 The grant amount will be determined by the Japan Foundation based on the project plan.

Program for Specialists in Cultural and Academic Fields

Section in Charge: Educational Training Section,
the Japan Foundation Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai

◆ Outline

With the aim of supporting specialists who require Japanese-language proficiency in order to smoothly perform their specialized work and research activities (such as researchers, graduate students, librarians, museum and art museum curators), this program provides training to improve their Japanese- language ability by learning practical Japanese and actually using it in their research and specialized work-related activities, conducted at the Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai.

* In FY2027, only a six-month course will be offered.

During the training course, participants will independently conduct interviews with specialists in their field as well as plan their own trips to visit related facilities and, as they gather and understand research materials, they will be able to acquire the skills needed to exchange, collect, and report information in Japanese. The participants will need to independently plan their activities with an explicit theme. Participants are required to make a presentation about their research themes as their accomplishments of the course and specialized activities conducted during their stay in Japan at the end of the course.

* This training program is designed to develop the Japanese language proficiency required for research activities and specialist work, and does not provide education in specific fields of study. Participants must attend all classes as a general rule, and specialized activities such as research and fieldwork must be conducted outside of class hours or during designated intensive periods.

◆ Duration

From early-October 2027 to late-March 2028

◆ Eligibility

Individuals must fulfill the following to apply:

- 1 Individuals who fulfill (1) or (2) and need Japanese-language proficiency to carry out their specialized work and research activities.

(1) Individuals who fulfill at least one of the following requirements and have an employment relationship with the organization outside Japan with which they are affiliated both at the time of application and at the start of the program. It is expected that participants will continue working in the same organization after completing this program.

- a Individuals who carry out research activities as teachers (professors, instructors, teaching assistants, etc.), researchers, etc., at institutions of advanced education, such as universities, research centers, or other research organizations.
- b Individuals who are engaged in a job of specialized research work in public sector organizations, such as government agencies, think tanks, etc.
- c Individuals who are currently engaged in full-time librarian work at universities, colleges, other institutions of advanced education, academic research institutions, cultural exchange organizations, or public libraries.
- d Individuals who are currently engaged in full-time curatorial work at museums or regularly involved in organizing exhibitions, and who are working for international exchange programs that concern Japan.

(2) Individuals who are officially registered as full-time students in a Master's or Doctoral course at a graduate school outside Japan, both at the time of application and at the start of the program (excluding non-degree students) and who plan to write their Master's or Doctoral thesis/dissertation on a subject related to Japan.

Concerning undergraduate students of universities and colleges that issue a Master's degree upon graduation, applicants will be considered to fulfill this requirement, if they are in the final year and their age is 22 or older as of December 1, 2026.

- 2 Individuals applying for this program must obtain the permission of the representative of their affiliated organization mentioned above.
- 3 Individuals whose research area must be in the field of Japan-related social sciences or humanities. Includes interdisciplinary fields with natural and applied sciences.
- 4 Individuals who have a specific and detailed theme related to Japan in their study or work, and plan to make a presentation on the achievements.
- 5 Individuals who are nationals of a country that has diplomatic relations with Japan.
 - * Taiwanese are eligible to apply for this program.
- 6 Individuals who have NOT received compulsory education in Japan for more than three years.
- 7 Individuals in good physical and mental health.
- 8 Individuals who have Japanese-language proficiency that is equivalent to or higher than Level N4 in the Japanese-Language Proficiency Test (JLPT), Level 3 of the old

JLPT, or A2 level in the JF Standard for Japanese-Language Education at the time of application (please visit the official website of JLPT [<https://www.jlpt.jp/e/about/levelsummary.html>], or the JF Standard for Japanese-Language Education website [<https://www.jfstandard.jp/jpf.go.jp>] to find the summary of linguistic competence required for each level).

- 9 Individuals who are NOT scheduled to study abroad at a Japanese educational institution, participate in other training in Japan, work in Japan, or engage in other activities during the program.

◆ Venue

The Japan Foundation Japanese-Language Institute, Kansai (Tajiri-cho, Sennan-gun, Osaka, Japan)

◆ Benefits

Provided to all participants:
