【Platform】'JF Japanese Language e-Learning Minato'

This is a platform providing a variety of online courses for learning the Japanese language. It provides the opportunity to study Japanese anytime and anywhere via the internet. It also contains a community function that allows students to interact with each other. It's also possible for the overseas offices of The Japan Foundation to create and operate their own individual courses. Focusing on the courses described below, each year approximately 150 courses are made available and conducted using the Minato platform. [EN, ES, CH, ID, TH, VI, JA]

●Marugoto Online Course

This is the main course of 'Minato', and gives you a complete study of the Japanese language and culture. It allows you to do self-study at your own pace online, while following the syllabus of the course book developed by The Japan Foundation, 'Marugoto Japanese Language and Culture'. Courses are available from a Beginner's Level (A1) to the Elementary Level (A2). With this course you can start your study of Japanese from zero and then plan on how to level up from there. [EN, ES, CH, ID, TH, VI, FR, PT, JA]

●IRODORI Online Course

This is an online course for acquiring the Japanese language communication skills necessary for daily life situations in Japan. [EN, CH, ID, TH, VI, KM, MG, MY, NP, JA]
