

Lineup Announced for CROSSCUT ASIA #04: What's Next from Southeast Asia Special Trailer and Short Commentary Clips from Maestros also Released

The Japan Foundation Asia Center and the 30th Tokyo International Film Festival (TIFF) is pleased to announce the lineup for CROSSCUT ASIA #04: What's Next from Southeast Asia which features works from young filmmakers in Southeast Asia recommended by maestros in the same region.

The Japan Foundation Asia Center's CROSSCUT ASIA series showcases Asian films with a focus on specific countries, directors, or themes. Following the first three editions, which featured Thailand, the Philippines, and Indonesia, the fourth edition will encompass a larger area of Southeast Asia to mark the 50th anniversary of the formation of ASEAN (Association of Southeast Asian Nations). The fourth edition will introduce 13 films from Southeast Asia, including nine feature films and four short films.

This year's CROSSCUT ASIA focuses on the genealogy of Southeast Asian cinema, as the maestros pass the baton to the next generation. It will introduce such works as director HF Yambao's Kristo (2016), recommended by Brillante Ma Mendoza; Kirsten Tan's Pop Aye (2017), recommended by Eric Khoo; Wichanon Somumjarn's In April the Following Year, There Was a Fire (2012), recommended by Apichatpong Weerasethakul; and short films by young Cambodian directors recommended by Rithy Panh. Please see following page for the full lineup.

- During the festival, there will be stage appearances, Q&A sessions featuring directors and/or celebrated guests from these works, and a symposium with Brillante Ma Mendoza and HF Yambao.
- TIFF will be showing video messages from these maestros, sharing their fond memories of TIFF. Please check <https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLIqCE9eB-bqH282kjTHBM77P-KhTUaNOv>

- Special trailer of the CROSSCUT ASIA #04: What's Next from Southeast Asia will be also released on https://youtu.be/UTUBZQ_4yq8
- Free booklets specially made for CROSSCUT ASIA #4 will be distributed to viewers.
 - In addition, we will hold a gift campaign targeting viewers of CROSSCUT ASIA films, giving them a chance to win a booklet with autographs by Southeast Asian directors and special goods from the program.

The Japan Foundation is Japan's principal independent administrative institution dedicated to carrying out cultural exchange initiatives throughout the world. The Asia Center, established in April 2014, is a division within the Foundation that conducts and supports collaborative initiatives with its Asian—primarily ASEAN—counterparts. Through interacting and working together in Japanese-language education, arts and culture, sports, and grassroots and intellectual exchange, the Asia Center pursues to develop the sense of kinship and coexistence as neighboring inhabitants of Asia.

Tokyo International Film Festival www.tiff-jp.net

The Tokyo International Film Festival (TIFF) started in 1985 as Japan's first major film festival and the only Japanese film festival accredited by the International Federation of Film Producers Associations (FIAPF). Since then, TIFF has grown to become one of the largest film festivals in Asia. Every year in October, filmmakers and film fans of all ages gather in Tokyo to enjoy excellent films from around the world and TIFF's many colorful events. These include TIFF's affiliated media content market TIFFCOM, seminars for students, professionals, and business people, and symposiums and workshops for networking with the world's film industries, developing international co-productions, and promoting the global film business. The 30th Tokyo International Film Festival will be held from October 25 (Wed.) to November 3 (Fri.), 2017.
