Financial Cooperation from the Private Sector

The Japan Foundation is able to engage in international cultural exchange programs thanks to generous financial contributions from the private sector, including those from businesses, organizations and individuals.

1. Categories of donation

(1) General donations

These donations are allocated to expenses for the Foundation's international cultural exchange programs.

A. General donations system

These donations are received from corporations and individuals and their timing and amount are at the donor's discretion. Donors and examples of programs implemented are shown in [*1] and [*2] on the following page.

a. Donations for program expenses

These donations are allocated to expenses for the Foundation's programs during the same fiscal year in which the donation was received. According to the donor's wishes, the donation can be allocated to expenses for a particular project during the fiscal year or to programs in general. b. Donations to operational funds (private endowments) These donations are deposited in the Foundation's funds, and the accrued interest is allocated in perpetuity for program expenses.

B. Membership System

Fixed donations are received in the form of membership dues and are allocated to a variety of programs implemented during the fiscal year in which the donation was made. Members can enjoy privileges such as receiving the Foundation's publications, and invitations to various events sponsored or co-sponsored by the Foundation, depending on the membership category.

a. Corporate Membership System

This system is for corporations and organizations. The members comprise Regular Members, whose donation is at least 100,000 yen, and Special Members, whose donation is at least 500,000 yen annually. The list of members is shown in [*3] on the following page.

b. JF Supporters Club

Fixed donations are received from individuals and groups in the form of membership dues. Annual membership fees are 3,000 yen for an Associate, 2,000 yen for a Student Associate, 10,000 yen for a Partner, and 50,000 yen for a Group.

(2) Designated donations programs

Under this program, domestic individual and corporate donations to support international cultural exchange programs at home and abroad are received by the Foundation with the understanding that they will be used to subsidize the organizations that implement the specific cultural exchange projects. By utilizing this system, such donations to support the programs are treated as donations to the Foundation, a designated public benefit organization, and the donors are eligible to receive taxation benefits for their donations.

Eligible programs include personnel exchanges; overseas Japanese studies and Japanese-language education programs; and performances, exhibitions, seminars, etc., related to international cultural exchange. Receipt of designated donations is subject to the decisions made by a deliberative council of external experts. See [*4] on the following page for a list of designated donations programs.

2. Taxation benefits

The Japan Foundation is a "Designated Public Benefit Organization" (or "Tokutei Koh-eki Zoushin Houjin"), in accordance with Article 77 of the Corporate Tax Enforcement Order and Article 217 of the Income Tax Enforcement Order. Therefore, donations to the Foundation are subject to the following taxation benefits. (1) Corporations Deductible expenses may be declared in addition to the standard deduction for donations.

Upper limit of financial loss = [(amount of capital) x (period of months / 12×0.0025) + (amount of income for fiscal period in question x 0.05)] × 0.5

(2) Individuals

An amount equal to the donation minus 5,000 yen, up to 40% of gross income, is tax deductible. Donations of inherited assets are also eligible for beneficial taxation treatment.
